Adult Protective Services

This program will provide participants with an understanding of the role, responsibility and function of the Adult Protective Services Program in Ohio. Social workers and nurses, as mandated reporters of abuse, neglect and exploitation, will have a clear understanding of the terms and processes in order to apply it appropriately when making decisions regarding the need for intervention.

The Presenter

Barbara Barrett

Barb Barrett is a licensed social worker and graduated with her bachelor's degree from Bluffton University in 1991. She has worked in the social work field for approximately 22 years and is currently employed with South Central Ohio Job and Family Services in Chillicothe.

After Barb worked in corrections from 1991-2000, she worked at Goodwill and National Church Residences until 2005 when she began her employment at Job and Family Services. Barb has completed a course in Gerontology to enhance her knowledge of the aging process and is very involved in the Senior Advisory Council, SALT Council, Ross County Advisory Board, and the SHIP (Senior Home Information) Program.

Barb was recently recognized with the award from the Ohio Coalition for Adult Protective Services (APS), which each year recognizes an APS investigator for exemplary work. In 2013, Barb was awarded the "Adult Protective Services Worker of the Year." She has been an excellent partner with the Area Agency on Aging District 7 in our shared mission of helping and assisting older adults in our communities.
