Alzheimer's and the Holidays

This program discusses the challenges during the holiday season for families dealing with Alzheimer's disease or a related dementia. Attendees will have an opportunity to understand the unique issues families may face during the holidays. Also discussed will be suggestions on how families can make the holidays enjoyable, and how family and friends can remain involved in the holiday celebration while supporting the primary care needs of the affected individual.

The Presenter

Melissa Dever, BSW, LSW

Ms. Dever is the Southeastern Ohio Branch Program Manager for the Alzheimer's Association – Greater Cincinnati Chapter. In her position, Ms. Dever provides education, emotional support, and care planning assistance to family caregivers of individuals with Alzheimer's disease or other dementias. Ms. Dever also provides education and information to other health professionals and the general community. Ms. Dever received her Bachelor of Social Work degree from the University of Rio Grande and has extensive experience as a geriatric/medical social worker. She has worked in long-term care, acute care, and home and community-based programs for the aging population. Her work has been particularly focused on assisting the geriatric population and their caregivers in resolving medical crisis issues as well as long-term care planning. Ms. Dever was recently the Patient Navigator Manager at a community hospital where she developed social service programming to assist outpatients and emergency room patients in crisis.
