Substance Abuse and the Elderly: The Hidden Epidemic

This training will provide information on addiction through the lens of an elderly population. Discussions will surround the nuances and difficulties in differential diagnosis of the aging. The subject matter is geared toward providing practical tools for the direct care worker. The program will also attempt to provide each participant with new tools for intervention and care. Best practices for dealing with this issue will be clearly delineated.

The Presenter

Charles Gorman, M.Ed., LPCC-S, LICDC-CS

Mr. Gorman has worked in the mental health field since 1987. He has worked as a counselor, case manager, crisis counselor, clinical supervisor, and administrator.
