

Wellness Tip of the Week

with the Area Agency on Aging District 7

Take a Break

Even short episodes of physical activity can improve your fitness and health. If you work at a desk job, try stretching in between meetings or calls to keep your joints from getting stiff while also getting a mental break.