Falls Management Class Coming March 10th to Portsmouth

Could you or someone you know benefit from helpful hints about preventing falls? Have you or someone you know turned down a chance to go out with family and friends because of a concern about falling? Have you or someone you know become afraid of a favorite activity due to a fear of falling? If so, there is a program now offered locally that is specifically designed to help with these and other similar concerns. Thanks to a partnership with the Area Agency on Aging District 7 (AAA7), local coaches are now trained to offer this program in Scioto County to those who are interested.

The program, “A Matter of Balance: Managing Concerns About Falls,” is designed to reduce the fear of falling and increase activity levels among older adults. Participants in the class learn to set realistic goals to increase activity, change their environment to reduce fall risk factors, and learn simple exercises to increase strength and balance. Attending classes can help improve quality of life and independence.

In a study of participants after six months following the A Matter of Balance program, 97 percent are more comfortable talking about their fear of falling; 97 percent feel comfortable with increasing their activity level; 99 percent plan to continue exercising; and 98 percent would recommend A Matter of Balance.

Riverview Retirement Center and RSVP of the Ohio Valley will be hosting the class that will begin in Portsmouth on March 10th. Classes will be held each week on Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning March 10th through April 2nd from 1:30 pm until 3:30 pm at Riverview Retirement Center, located at 500 Second Street in Portsmouth.

If you are interested in participating in the upcoming class, contact the Area Agency on Aging District 7 at 1-800-582-7277 and ask for Vicki Woyan at extension 22215 or Carla Cox at extension 22284. Class size is limited, so if you or someone you know is interested, please call soon to reserve your spot. Registration deadline is March 3rd.
